Decision to Travel

Traveling later in life can be the adventure of a lifetime and help to make those so-called golden years truly golden. Maybe your anticipation and excitement for the future has been challenged and optimism reduced and the thought of moving out of your comfort zone little overwhelming. When people reach their retirement age or older, they sometimes will stop traveling for many valid reasons. Maybe they don't have a traveling companion, they move at a slower pace, have mobility or health issues, or just plain cold feet. But these are the exact reasons that Bartlett Tours is a great place to begin. We understand each of these challenges and will always try to accommodate these factors. Most of our guests have traveled multiple times with us because Leeann and I escort each tour and consistently demonstrate that your safety and individual enjoyment are our highest priorities. Enclosed is a list of upcoming tours. We hope you will find at least one or two trips interesting and inviting and will decide to join us. Many tours sell out quickly so you will not want to wait too long before making a decision to reserve your spot.
