Do I Need Travel Insurance?

This is a common question we often get. Travel insurance is not unlike other types of insurance for medical, auto, home, etc. that are intended to protect you against major financial loss in the case of an unexpected incident. Like other insurances, there are varying degrees of benefits and of course, the related premiums. As a service to our clients, we offer access to travel insurance but certainly do not require that insurance be purchased most of the time. When traveling to an international destination, we always suggest and sometimes insist that travel insurance be purchased since Medicare and most other medical insurance plans do not offer benefits outside of the United States. In addition to medical care, transportation back to the US for medical care can easily run into hundreds of thousands of dollars. We encourage you to find the policy that best fits your needs and budget. Most travel policies have benefits for trip cancellation, trip delay, trip interruption, and baggage protection. Please be aware that many travel insurance policies have pre-existing condition clauses that require the policy be purchased within days of making your initial deposit for a trip. If you're interested in purchasing travel insurance, it's really best to be informed of all your options before booking your trip and paying your deposit.

Please do not hesitate to call us with any questions.

◆ As you know, Bartlett Tours has formed a partnership with Mark Miller, owner of Carry On Travel & Tours. Many of you know Mark since he has planned and led a number of successful tours with Bartlett over the years. He and his staff have begun to take over many of the daily administrative tasks, so when you call Bartlett Tours you may talk with Mark, Amanda, Susan, or Abbi. Rest assured, other aspects of Bartlett Tours will remain the same. With the added manpower, we expect to increase our tour offerings and be able to provide more tours and new destinations beginning in 2024. Mike will continue to be involved in the operations and planning of tours with Mark and has been training the office staff so the personalized service you have come to know and love will continue with Bartlett Tours.

The day of our flight we will announce the destination airport upon departure from Havasu and an itinerary will be distributed for that day only. At the end of each day, the itinerary for the following day will be handed out. With the excitement of another mystery trip, we expect this tour will fill up quickly. Call for an info packet with a registration form and terms. Travel insurance is available.

Nov 27-29, 2024 Thanksgiving on the Queen Mary (tentatively postponed)

There will be no brunch and no parking available for guests as these will be used for hosting the performances during the festival. We will have more information regarding the scheduling for November 2024 in early 2024. We are currently working on a Thanksgiving Getaway over the same dates as a replacement. We will have more information available in the 2024-2025 brochure which will be out in late Winter 2024. Until that time, please look for updates via the website, email and Facebook.
